

202.3 VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

The Vice-President shall serve in the absence of the President and shall perform such other duties as may be delegated by the President or Board of Directors. If the President were to vacate the office during the President's term, the Vice-President would assume the position of the President until the annual board reorganization. At the time of the Vice President's assumption of the Presidency, all vacant board offices will be filled through board selection at the next scheduled meeting.

The vice-president of the board is elected by a majority vote at the organizational meeting in odd-numbered years, or at the annual meeting in even-numbered years, to serve a one-year term of office.

If both the President and Vice-President are absent, the next most senior Board member shall serve as temporary chairperson.
