

601.28E3 Muscatine Community School District
Release Form for Using Student's Full Name and/or Photo

The Muscatine Community School District likes to celebrate the achievements of our students and staff. Throughout the year, the Communications Department and district staff may take photographs or videos of students and school activities. These photographs or videos may appear in various District materials, including the District's website (www.muscatine.k12.ia.us), newsletters, social media, brochures, etc. We, at times, may also publicize student work.

Place a checkmark or X over your selection:

- Yes, the district may use my student's photo.
 No, the district may not use my student's photo.

When it comes to your student's full name while we typically do not publish the full name with photos, there may be times when it would be customary to do so in various District materials such as recognitions, awards, accomplishments, etc.

- Yes, the district may use my student's full name.
 No, the district may not use my student's name in various online publications.
